Motivation to Donate

Why do you want to become a donor?

She explains she has wanted to become a donor for a few years now. Her best friend needed IVF treatments to start their family, and at one point her friend might consider needing an egg donor to have her dream of having a family. The donor explained seeing the impact of her friends IVF struggles gave her the insight and understanding that so many people need assistance to have their own families. Lucia explains if she can have the opportunity to help someone, it would bring her a lot of joy.

Being a donor is a big responsibility. It requires going to several doctor's appointments, taking injections and having minor out-patient surgery. Do you feel prepared to commit to this process?
